Featuring the most talented Italian designer Alexandra Stelzer. Her work is superior concoction of sophistication with simplicity. Alexandra started her career at the tender age of eighteen. Her education at Florence added a new dimension to her creative side. She knew her life would have a new meaning with fabrics, sketches and cuts. After completing her studies Alexandra worked for several fashion brands in Italy. After gaining good experience Ms. Stelzer knew it was time to spread open her wings and fly. She started her own fashion label in 1993 called DE CALL®. And the success followed. She has shown her collection in Europe, USA, Asia and Russia.

In simple words Alexandra celebrates the sense of womanhood through her collections. Her prêt à porter line is a fashionable and elegant. DE CALL® is focused to creations that can all be easily combined with each other, layering various pieces of clothing in one outfit. She is celebrated for her street chic-culture day and cocktail outfits. Her exclusive evening dresses are really very popular.

Especially the DE CALL® Atelier sophisticated bridal couture-robos are in much demand from Italy to the Emirates. Alexandra's looks are authentic with a timeless appeal, full of glamour and inovation, with a spirit from the glamouros '30, fancy materials and a vision to the future. Alexandra also works with theater and productions as a costume designer.
